SENATOR SEWARD AT ST. PAUL

Great Popular Demonstration!

MINNESOTA ALL RIGHT!

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel

ST. PAUL, Wednesday, Sept. 19. Yesterday was a great day for St. Paul. Notwithstanding the threatening aspect of the weather, the people began to pour into the city, from early morning, and long before noon it became evident that the assemblage was to be a very large one. Soon after mid-day the Hennepin county delegation, nearly a thousand strong, in two, four and six-horse teams, moved in procession thro' the principal streets of the city, being greet ed at almost every corner by the cheers of the multitude who thronged the sidewalks Shortly after 2 o'clock, Senator SEWARD and his party were escorted, by a large number of Wide Awakes, to the State Capitol, which was already crowded in every part by the ladies of St. Paul. A small platform had been constructed on the front entrance to the Capitol, and from this Gov. SEWARD addressed the cople. He was introduced by Mr. J. W. North, of St. Paul, and was received with the most hearty and enthusiastic demonstrations of attachment and respect. His speech to the people of Minnesola was the longest and most elaborate that he has yet delivered, and is tho't, by those who heard it, to be the greatest of all his efforts in the present canvass. It was bold, earnest and uncompromising; and the responses which it elicited from the vast audience showed how strongly it stirred the hearts of the people. The speech was specially reported for the St. Paul Times, and will appear in that paper of Saturday. It will be extensively circulated throughout Minnesota, and should be scattered broadcast all over the Free States. No more forcible, or more eloquent vindication of Republican principles was ever made.

Senator Seward apoke for upwards of two hours, and then the meeting, after a few brief and happy remarks from the Hon. CHAS. F. ADAMS, adjourned till evening .-Soon after nightfall the Wide-Awakes began to muster, and at eight o'clock they formed in column and with torch-lights, transparencies, banners, flags and fire-works, marched through the city. It was a splendid sight and drew out thousands of spectators .-- . the International Hotel and were addressed from the balcony, by Mr. CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, Lient. Governor PATTERSON, Senstor Wilkinson, of Minnesots and other gentlemen. Their eloquent appeals roused the enthusiasm of their audience to the highest pitch, and the air was vocal with the cheers of thousands of ardent Republicans.

It is needless to say that the meeting was a most successful one. It far exceeded in numbers, while it rivalled in spirit, that at our own State Capital on the 12th instant: and furnished convincing proof, if any were needed, that MINNESOTA is sound to the core. Indeed all parties here freely concede that Minnesots will give from five to six thousand majority for Lincoln and Hamlin; and since VERMONT and MAINE have spoken in such significant tones, there are few to be found who doubt that ABRAHAM LINCOLN will be the next President of the United litates.

During their three days' stay in St. Pani Gov. SEWARD and his party have been the guests of the good people of this rapidly rising city, and the hospitality extended to them has been of the heartiest sort. Most of us have been quartered at the "Internation. al," the proprietor, Mr. Lone, sparing no pains to make our sojourn a pleasant one. | Many of the delegates attending the State On Monday evening, Gov. RAMSAY gave a handsome party to Gov. SEWARD and his friends, which was largely attended and much enjoyed; and last evening we had a those from the Orphan Asylum, were wreathmost agreeable entertainment at the hospitable mansion of Col. OAKES; one of the pi- spotless white. It is not too much to say oneers of the North-West. Senator Will-KINSON, Col. ALDRICH, Judge Goodnich, Gen. Van Erron and other prominent citiments, of both parties, have vied in their kind attentions to their distinguished guests: while the mass of the people have shown, in a thousand ways, how strong a hold Senator SEWARD has upon their confidence and regard, and how deep their devotion is to Re. publican principles.

It was the intention of our party to have left St. Paul last night, but there was no boat to take us; the War Eagle being disabled by a broken wheel. So this morning we start for Dabuque on the Alhambra; hoping, with good luck, to reach Dubuque by Thursday evening, in time to see our Iowa friends. Thence, Gov. SEWARD goes direct to Kausas, returning to Chicago by the 1st of October, and so home. R. K.

ESCAPED .- A young convict named JAS WHEELAN, who committed a burglary in Rock county, and was sent up to the State Prison for a year, last June, escaped last Friday P. M. He was working in the lot, outside the yard wall, and had been granted liberty to go some distance from his overseer for his cost. The latter worthy, unsuspicione, didn't watch the boy so close as to see him clamber over the fence; but he was seen by the wife of the Deputy Warden, who give the alarm. Although he was immediately pursued, and the roads leading from the village were watched during the night, he was not again seen. He is 13 years of age, 4 feet 10 inches high, dark complexioned, and had on a common Prison suit. Com. Hac offers fifty dollars for his arrest and return. It is but due to the officers of the Prison to say that the individual under whose surveillance the little codger was, was not a regular guard, and has since been discharged.

THE BODY OF MATTHEW HANLEY, & member of the Union Guards, was brought to MISTAERN IDENTIFICATION.—A number of mistakes have occurred in the identification of bodies from the wreck of the Lady Elgin, some of which have been attended with no little trouble to the friends of the lost. A strange one occurred on Sunday last, over a body supposed to be that of young Comerford of Milwaukee. Upon the arrival of the body at the Cemetery from the tug, it was claimed by the friends of Comerford, and sworn to as his body. But a few minutes had elapsed, however, before another party, friends of Mr. Pearce, claimed it, believing it to be his body, and still later came another party, as positive that it was the body of a man named McAuliffe. After a careful examination of the body and comparison with descriptions, the Pearce and McAuliffe parties withdrew their claims, and the body was delivered to the friends Comerford and taken to Milwaukee that night. Arrived at that place, the body was placed in a metalic case, and preparations made for the funeral. Every arrangement was effected—the military, of which Comerford was a member, were out, and the corpse would soou have been interred, when yet another purty appeared upon the ground, and proving almost beyond a doubt that it was the body of a man named O'Brien, triumphantly bore it away. The clothing and articles found upon the body tallied very nearly with the descriptions furnished of Comerford, Pearce and McAuliffe had on shoes, while on the body were found boots. Comerford was supposed to have on boots, as he had worn a pair from the house, and white socks, while on the body were found two old socks. The friends of O'Brien, however, to prove their claim to the body, brought the pair of boots Comerford had worn away from home, and which he had left at a bootmaker's, wearing away a pair of shoes purchased at the same place, and also two old socks mating the pair of the wearing away a pair of shoes purchased at the same place, and also two odd socks mat-ing the ones found on the body.—Chicago Press & Tribune. CALVIN RECORD.

III. SAMUEL C. FESSREDEN, by 900 over live the state of the cause of the cause said should like some delegate to enlighten us. It is now the like to the minds of the lever which is to turn the portant question after all. It might be well to talk of porfect teachers and draw models of virtue, but we cannot have them. Still we know that we can have successful teachers and to be successful, we know he must have a love for his work. He said he would like to refor to what that old wheel horse of the cause said shoult the teachers in Indians, he made the children think, that was just the point, to draw out their thoughts; and to do that the teacher imust himself think gifts is a doubtful one. You may use all the point, to draw out their thoughts; and to do that the teacher imust himself think gifts is a doubtful one. You may need the splicings of strain to the minds of the children think, that was just the point, to draw out their thoughts; and to do that the teacher imust himself think gifts is a doubtful one. You may need the splicings of strain to the minds of the children thank. You must have the warmth from a laways endeavoring to find out some way of bringing truth to the minds of the children that will give life and vitality. You may overcome all obstacles by christian perseverance. You must be like the Saylor and successful teachers. Let them bring all their invention, all their intellicetual capital into the fire world.

Mr. Chidlaw, of Ohio, said that the organization in his State was a very simple one. We have few officers, and expect them to do their duty. We depend chiefly on the county secretaries.

A delegate from Bacine said: He was doubtful about the manner of organization, and was fearful it would fail again:

Mr. Byron stated that the reason why the former organization failed, was the want o an efficient secretary, who lost his books and forgot his duty. [Laughter:]

Considerable desultory talk was occasioned among the delegates. Finally Mr. Hawlet on the delegates. Finally Mr. Hawlet on the constant of the convention as made out by the committee.

Mr Santures corrected the gentleman, and said if he referred to the Sentinet, he would find that he did not say the schools in Racine were declining, but simply, that the schools in the city of Racine were not as prosperous, as a year ago. They want more help in the mission school. It is well conducted, the Sup't is a live man, and does all be can to keep that school going.

There is one feature about it that I love to see, and that is the gathering in of adults, who attend and evince a great deal of interest. They have also a vigorous bible-class.

should appear, to take his departure for the should appear, to take his departure for the cars.

Just before ten o'clock, he made his appearance with two of his suite, accompanied by Mayor Ruhl, intending to drive through the city before proceeding to the cars. A magnificent open barouche drawn by four white horses, had been provided for the purpose, in which the party seated themselves. The crowd gathered about the carriage, and blocking up the avenues made it almost impossible for the carriage to proceed.

Cheer after cheer was given, and the wildest enthusiasm prevailed. The carriage was followed by immense crowds on foot, many followed by intercepted the royal party with people who intercepted the royal party at every turn. Such a rabble and seeme of confusion was never witnessed here before. After driving through a row of the principal streets followed by the invincible crowd at every step, the party proceeded to the depot and took their departure for Chicago, amid the firing of a salute and other demonstrations.

Another Great Speech by Gov. Saward. Another Great Speech by tow. seward.
Sr. Paul., Sept. 18-3 P. M.
Senator Seward made to-day the great speech of the campaign. He looked to the acquisition of British America, Russian America and Spanish America, and declared that the man was born who would live to America and Spanish America, and decised that the man was born who would live to see the American people coming to the harmonious understanding that this is a land of freedom and free men, and that it is the land of the white men, and that whatever elements there are to disturb its present peace will, before long, pass away without endangering this great Union.

Talking of the threats of the South to dissolve the Union, he asked: Who is afraid? Nobody is afraid.

He prophesied that the time would come when New York would cease to be the Keystone State, as Virginia had already ceased to be the Old Dominion. The New Dominion, the Empire State and the Keystone State would be hereafter in the Mississippi Valley.

THE STEAMER PLANET,

This fine steamer, commanded by Capt. Nicuolson, and now on the Chicago, Milwaukee and Lake Superior Line, arrived from Chicago early yesterday mor, ning, and cleared for Superior City early in the afternoon. She had a deck load of live stock from Chicago and took some miscellaneous freight and passengers, from this port. She is a fine looking steamer, and is

RAIL VAY MATTERS.

HEAT COMING TO MILWAUKER FROM THE CHICAGO AND NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY. The wheat is coming in from the surrounding towns and each load is soon covered with men anxious to buy. The competition keeps up the price to Milwause figures, save the cost of transportation, and a cent or two for margio. The Foud du Lac Commonwealth says:

grain is spilled where it is lo-day. The carts are then taken back to the hoisting point, re-filled, emptied, and will be forwarded immediately, it will not take long t In other cases, the grain is put into bags and carised up inclined places on the backs of laborers, to the destined floor. This is also the practice at some of the storages in Atlantic docks, where the steam eletors to soft need. of the storages in Atlantic docks, where the steam elevator is not used.

Southern grain comes in bags, as does also the Callfornia whent. The Western comes in bulk, and occasionally in bulk for farrone, and much of the Southern and Callfornia grain could be transferred from vessel to ressel without breaking buck.

The Albambra, Flore, and Fanny Harris, stern wheel boats, have been put on as a line between Prairie du Chien and St. Paul. They are designed especially for carrying gram and other freight to and from the Milwankee & Mississippi Railroad. From a circular issued by the company, we learn that their clova-tor at Prairie du Chien is completed, and that they are now prepared to recieve and ship grain in bulk ! from the river to Milwaukee. If desired by shippers, it will be inspected and weighed at that place, and a receipt given for the exact quality and quantity reesived. The standard of inspection will be the sa as at Milwaukee.
